2nd Annual Valentine Contest

Artwork by Morgan Garneau, one of the 2010 Broken Heart Winners

Valentine's Day is the most romantic day of the year – but it can also be saccharine, annoying and depressing – especially if you've just broken up with someone! The answer? Participate in the Dunlop Art Gallery's "Broken Hearts" contest! Prizes, including gift certificates and prize packs, will be awarded to the top 3 entries and the top 2 runners-up. Winning entries will also be exhibited in Central Library.

Contest Rules:

- New this year! We are offering 2 age categories:
Young adult: ages 12-18
Adult: 19 and up
- Entries must contain an original poem (rhyming optional), integrated into a Valentine's Day card. We want gothic, dark and tragic cards – the more heart-breaking the better.
- Entries, with your name, age category and contact information attached, can be dropped off at any Regina Public Library location. Enter as often as you like.
- Dark humour is encouraged but not essential.

TEACHERS: Looking for a Valentine's Day project that isn't sickly sweet?

This is a great opportunity to get your whole class involved! Perfect for Creative Writing and Visual Arts classes. A special prize will be awarded to the school with the most entries.
