Loan periods and fines may differ for materials from special collections. To renew an item, visit reginalibrary.ca and login to your account, call 306.777.6111, or toll free in Canada 1.855.980.SILS (7457).

Young adult print items are fined at 20¢/day to a maximum of $4.20. If items were lost (overdue 30 or more days, including material with no overdue fines) or damaged while checked out on your library account, a $7 non-refundable fee will be charged to your account for each item that requires replacement.

ART HAPPENS HERE: NET ART'S ARCHIVAL POETICS
March 20 - April 24
Curated by Artistic Director Michael Connor with Assistant Curator Aria Dean

In its decades-long history, net art has served as a testing ground for artists to interrogate politics, economies, and material cultures. This exhibition offers a selection of works from Rhizome's Net Art Anthology, restaging historical works of net art from its fragments - a timely approach as many institutions now frame the internet as a historical subject, rather than a novelty.

So many reasons to love your library! Regina Public Library offers all this and more - free, with your library card.

BUSINESS, CAREERS AND FINANCE: Staff and volunteer experts can help you start a small business, balance your budget, perfect your resumé, and more.

BOOKS AND RESOURCES: We have books; magazines; comics; DVDs; eBooks; eAudiobooks; online databases; online learning; large print and digital talking books; and streaming music, movies and TV shows.

COMPUTERS: Access WiFi, computers and laptops, printers, 3D printers, scanners, and copiers.

DIGITAL MEDIA STUDIO: Use our state-of-the-art digital production studio to work on your own audio and video creations.

DIGITIZATION STATION: Unable to access content on VHS, slides and photos, or other technology? Visit our digitization station to transform your collection into digital format.

DUNLOP ART GALLERY: Look, listen and learn about contemporary Canadian art at our two galleries, online, and through our regular podcasts.

ENTERTAINMENT: Have fun with our virtual reality stations and video game areas. Stretch your creativity at our Creation Cube at George Bothwell Branch (at the Southland Mall).

INDIGENOUS OFFERINGS: Explore materials written by Indigenous authors from Saskatchewan and beyond, and learn Aboriginal culture through hands-on Indigenous programming from traditional art and handcrafts, to traditional spiritual teachings, and knowledge about the land.

LITERACY SERVICES: Learn to speak, read, and write English through group sessions and classes. Enroll in citizenship classes and get comfortable with Canadian culture and day-to-day life.

OUTREACH SERVICES: We deliver personalized selections of books to homebound people with ill health or disability. We also provide materials to care homes, and technology to help people with vision loss read printed material.

PRAIRIE HISTORY SERVICES: Study our past with our extensive collection of prairie history books and materials. Trace your family history through the library's Ancestry.com subscription.

PROGRAMS: From children’s gardening programs to robotics for kids, teen henna tattoos to STEM challenges; adult family law clinics, to bicycle maintenance to book clubs, we have programs for all interests and ages.

PUBLIC SPACES: Library branches are welcoming and safe places in the community. Meet friends for coffee, visit our play areas, use quiet study rooms, or read the paper in a comfy chair. Community groups and individuals can book program rooms to host events (fees apply).

RPL FILM THEATRE: Sample the latest in world and alternative cinema. Attend film festivals, free family screenings, documentaries, cult classics, and the always-popular Talkies film nights. (Fees apply for some screenings.)

STUDENT SUPPORTS: Kids and teens can take advantage of our Homework Help, Math Buddies, Reading Buddies, and online studying assistance.

SUN LIFE MUSICAL INSTRUMENT LENDING LIBRARY: Here’s your chance to learn the ukulele! The library offers free access to musical instruments: borrow portable keyboards, percussion, and string instruments.

All you need is your Regina Public Library card.

About the RPL Board of Directors
The Regina Public Library is established under the provisions of The Public Libraries Act, 1996. The general management, regulation, and control of the Library is vested in the Regina Public Library Board.

The Board consists of the Mayor and one City Councillor as well as seven members of the public appointed by the City Council for two-year terms.

For those interested in learning more about the Board’s role and its contributions and oversight, the public is welcome to attend board meetings. Our board meetings calendar, as well as the minutes from past board meetings, are available at reginalibrary.ca.

Our Mission
The Regina Public Library is a board governed, integrated cultural organization that exists to provide opportunities for discovery and learning in an inclusive, customer-centred, and safe environment. Specifically, the RPL offers:

• Free and open access to resources
• Community space where people and ideas meet
• Programs and services that support reading, curiosity and discovery
• Community opportunities that complement and strengthen the public library offering.

We want to hear from you!
RPL welcomes comments and suggestions on Library services, programs and collections. Your input assists in planning the future direction of public library service in Regina. Send your comments via email to: mac@reginalibrary.ca
